Key:

Column 2

1. To save the woman's life or prohibited altogether (an E afterwards indicates that the country makes an explicit exception to save a woman's life)
2. To preserve physical health (also to save the woman's life)
3. To preserve mental health (also to save the woman's life and physical health)
4. Socioeconomic grounds (also to save the woman's life, physical health and mental health)
5. Without restriction as to reason

Column 3

R abortion permitted in cases of rape

R<sub>1</sub> abortion permitted in the case of rape of a woman with learning disability

I abortion permitted in cases of incest

F abortion permitted in cases of fetal impairment

SA spousal authorisation required

PA parental authorisation/notification required

+ abortion permitted on additional enumerated grounds relating to such factors as the woman's age or capacity to care for a child

S sex selection abortion prohibited

x recent legislation eliminated all exceptions to prohibition on abortion; availability of defence of necessity highly unlikely

FS federal system: abortion law determined by states. In Australia and Mexico, state laws fall into different categories of restrictiveness.

Classification reflects law affecting largest number of people.
